Mr. Samuel McNutt of West Third street has been on the sick list for the past few days.

The Brown County Grand Jury has returned indictments against Harry Devore of Ripley for burglary, and Thomas Bartley of the same place for pocket picking.

WILL FINANCE DEAL

Cincinnati Tobacco Men Interested in the Burley Pool

With the signatures of 65% of the tobacco growers of Kentucky binding themselves to hold their tobacco until it can be marketed at a profit satisfactory to the farmers' pool, representatives of the organization are in Cincinnati to finance the project.

One-half are able to carry their own crops; the remainder are the weak spot in the organization, as, unless they receive aid, they will have to sell at whatever price the trust happens to offer.

The Banks of Cincinnati are friendly to the project. It will take about $2,000,000.

The Cincinnati tobacco warehouse people are willing to undertake the task of financing the crops of weak growers, but will insist on having it placed absolutely in their hands.

IRVING TOLLEY

The Counterfeiter, is Caught, in Baltimore, Once Operated Here

Irving Tolley, a shaver of the queer, is in the clutches of Uncle Sam at Baltimore.

Last summer this slick gentleman was in Maysville and while here came within an ace of beating J. H. Bradford, the Front street saloonist, out of a sum of money.

He attempted to pass a bill raised from $5 to $20; and it was rare good luck, and Colonel Wes Lee's perceptive ability, that saved Bradford from parting with his coin.

The Chief of Police of this city has contributed in the tripping up of the counterfeiter, and the bill he attempted to push here will figure in his trial in the Maryland city, which comes up in the United States Court January 17th.

Mr. Bradford has been summoned as a witness against him and will leave next week for the Monumental City.

BADLY INJURED

Accident Which Befell Judge A. B. Cole Yesterday

A very painful, but fortunately not serious injury, befell Judge A. B. Cole, the well known Attorney, last evening.

Mr. Cole had assisted his daughter on board the 5:30 Eastbound C. and O. train at the Market Street Station, and the cars were in motion when he attempted to alight.

The ugly fall he received dislocated his left shoulder and he was otherwise considerably bruised.

Friends assisted him to the Central Hotel and summoned his physician, Dr. A. G. Browning.

After an examination and partial treatment the Judge was removed to his home, corner Fourth and Limestone streets.

He will be operated on this morning by Dr. Whitaker of Cincinnati, assisted by Dr. Browning of this city and Dr. A. P. Cole of Cincinnati.

NARROW ESCAPE

East End Lady Tumbles Over Embankment to Escape Flyer

Wednesday morning an East End lady was taking the short cut to the central part of the city by way of the C. and O. railway track.

As she approached the iron bridge over Limestone creek she stepped aside for the passage of the yard engine onto the switch nearby and as she did so the Westbound Flyer thundered along at a forty mile gait and the oncoming monster so affrighted the bewildered woman that she took a header over the embankment to avoid being run down.

To the train crew the woman flying through the air had the appearance of having been struck and the train was brought to a standstill and men sent back to gather up the supposed remains.

In her aerial flight, however, she was fortunate in escaping further injury than receiving painful scratches on the body in her descent down the cinder embankment.

It is more than likely that hereafter she will use the pavements in her mission down town.

MORE sensational and startling developments are promised in the trial of JIM HARGIS for the murder of Dr. S. D. Cox now in progress at Jackson, Ky.

A KENTUCKIAN, General JOHN WESTON, is slated to succeed General LEONARD Wood, in command of the Philippine Division of the Army service.

THE dairymen of Cincinnati have coolly notified the health authorities of that city that the price of milk will be raised to 8 cents a quart in winter and 7 cents in summer. Here is another combine that is alive and frisky and openly defies the law by a united plan of the dairymen to raise the price of milk, one of the greatest necessities of the poor people.

MR. STERLING is to have a $12,000 pressed brick hospital. Many Kentucky cities are taking steps toward erecting hospitals, and Maysville should organize a movement looking to the same end. It appears reasonable to us to expect, that, on account of the location of Maysville as an important railroad and river center of travel and traffic, that we should have a great hospital here, costing $50,000 to $100,000 with beautiful and picturesque lawns surrounding it. Study this matter over, physicians and officials, as it may lead to the consummation of one of the most important improvements coming to our modern city. Cannot some lover of humanity start the hospital fund with a $5,000 or $10,000 subscription?

THE United States may be said to be crippled by its present prosperity. We have not laborers enough to do our work; we have not enough cars to move our crops and our merchandise, and there is even a shortage of money for the proper conduct of business.

It is true that there are many who have less than they want and some who have less than they need. That is inevitable under any circumstances. But never before in the history of this country, and perhaps never in the history of any other country, have the comforts, the conveniences and even the luxuries of life been so widely distributed as they are among the American people today.—New York Sun.

JOHNNY'S EASY MONEY.
 Johnny's dog, Tige, was a nuisance. His pet theory must have been that all things were created to be destroyed—at least, so his practices indicated. Johnny's folks were anxious to be rid of Tige, and at last they decided to work upon the lad's affections with lucre.
 "Johnny," said his father one day, "I'll give you five dollars if you'll get rid of that dog."
 Johnny gasped at the amount, swallowed hard at thought of Tige, and said he would think it over.
 The next day at dinner he made the laconic announcement: "Pa, I got rid of Tige."
 "Well, I certainly am delighted to hear it," said the father. "Here's your money; you've earned it. How did you get rid of the nuisance?"
 "Traded him to Bill Simpkins for two yellow pups," answered Johnny.

THANKFUL

To my many friends and the public generally who have in the past extended to me such a liberal share of their patronage, which has helped so materially in making my business in Maysville such a success: I want to assure all that I fully appreciate what they have done for me, and promise that I shall, by renewed efforts, endeavor to retain the confidence of the public by pursuing the same course of fair dealing and polite attention in the future as in the past and selling the very best goods at the most reasonable prices.
 My stock is now the largest and most varied it has ever been my pleasure to offer to the public, consisting of every article in the Staple and Fancy Grocery line. These goods are fresh and new and of the very best quality. My last shipment of New Crop Open Kettle Molasses is now in and they are strictly fancy, and in spite of the fact that prices on these goods have materially advanced I am still selling them at the very low price of 50c per gallon. My stock of CANNED GOODS is unusually large and the quality of the very best.
 The demand for PERFECT FLOUR is rapidly growing because it is beyond a doubt the very best Flour sold in Maysville or that can be made. It has no superior anywhere.
 The run on my fine Blended Coffees has been enormous and is constantly increasing. I am still selling these fine goods at 15c, 20c and 25c per pound, and if you want a strictly fancy high grade Mocha and Java, the finest that can be produced, don't fail to call for the famous "Barrington Hall," steel cut, sold only in one-pound airtight tins at 35c per pound. A fresh supply of fall catch clacker-els just in. If you want something extra try one of my fancy Blander Meats, heads and tails off.
 A big invoice of very fine Premium Chinaware just in, a sample of which may be seen in my warehouse window. These goods I give to my CASH customers in redeeming tickets given out with their cash purchases. Until further notice DOUBLE TICKETS will be given with each cash purchase on SATURDAYS. By taking advantage of this proposition the purchaser will very soon accumulate enough tickets to secure a fine set of china FREE OF COST.
 I buy strictly fancy Table Butter, Fresh Eggs and Country Produce generally, for which I pay cash or trade at lowest cash prices. I want every one to come and see me; always welcome. If you don't want to buy it will be a pleasure for me to show you the nicest, the cleanest and the best kept store in Northeastern Kentucky. Thanking all again, I am most sincerely,

All Kinds of Money

Mason county people made all kinds of money last summer. They never were so prosperous as they are today.
 If your goods and prices are right they will spend money with you. You can reach them through THE DAILY LEDGER. Try it.

The many friends of Mr. Joe Hechinger will be glad to know he continues to mend, and will be himself again in a few days.

Mr. Joseph A. Walton, formerly of Germantown, has been elected a Director of the Bluegrass Fair Association at Lexington.

TAKING LEAVE.

Kind Expressions From Friends of The Ledger's Retiring Editor

CINCINNATI, O., January 8th, 1907.

Dear Tom: I am sorry to hear that we lose you as owner and Editor of THE LEDGER, but awfully glad that you can take a rest after you have been so long in harness. You have edited a clean sheet, and have always been an advocate for the people of your city and the county, regardless of your difference in politics. I think the whole county are your friends and your political party should never forget you for the way you have stood, even if you thought sometimes an injustice had been done you. Always wishing you success and happiness I am truly yours,
 M. S. DIMMITT.

Do Ostriches Ever Die?
 Nothing is positively known as to how long an ostrich will live. Some writers claim that it will live 100 years. Ostriches which are known to have been in captivity for 40 years are still breeding and producing feathers.

It is the experience of Arizona farmers that among the birds having good nutritious green feed deaths seldom occur, except as the result of accident. A dog or other small animal will sometimes frighten ostriches and cause them to run into the fence, which may result in a broken leg. When this happens, the bird may as well be killed as few ever recover from such an injury.—National Geographic Magazine.

After All.
 An amusing story is told of a short-sighted but energetic member of the Russian secret police. He was walking through a little frequented street of St. Petersburg one night when he spied, high up on a lamp post a placard.

"Aha!" he said to himself, scenting mischief on the instant and alert for action. "That's one of those notices about his majesty the czar! It must come down at once!"

With difficulty, being of a somewhat portly build, he succeeded in climbing the post and dislodging the placard. Peering at it by the light of the lamp, he read the Russian equivalent for the well known legend: "Wet paint."

Why Russian Names Are Long.

"I often hear Americans make fun of the long Russian names," said Dr. George L. Alexis Hamilton, a Russian physician. "Let me tell you why these names are long when spelled out in the English language. It is because you have not enough letters in your alphabet. In Russian there are 36 letters. In translating a proper noun it is often necessary to use three or four English letters to express the sound of one Russian letter. So sometimes a name that if written in Russian would be as short as 'Smith' will be almost an inch long when spelled out in English."

Not Even Sultan Exempt.

On one occasion when the famous Nasr-ed-din was pressed for money he went to the sultan for permission to levy a tax of a penny on every man in Turkey who was afraid of his wife. The sultan gave him leave, and at the end of a few months Nasr-ed-din returned with a hundred mules laden with gold. "But what am I to get out of all this?" inquired the sultan. "I have brought you a beautiful Georgian slave," replied the sage. "Hush!" said the sultan, glancing over his shoulder. "Don't let my wife hear!" And the wily Nasr-ed-din Hedja added another penny to his store.

WHY THIS EMBARGO?

The H. E. Pogue Distillery Company has twenty carloads of freight at Cincinnati, awaiting shipment to Maysville, but the Union Hay and Grain Company has written them that the C. and O. has refused to accept the cars from the Big Four. Why this embargo against Maysville? Agent Wykoff says he knows nothing of the matter.

A LOBLOLLY

Is a Portion of Chester Street and a
Strenuous Kick is Made

There is certainly a strenuous kick coming from the property owners and residents of that part of Chester street between the Ball Park and Broadway street.

It is simply awful that the people are compelled to put up with present conditions. The roadway is a perfect loblolly and as for a sidewalk there is none.

In the one carts and wagons sink almost to the axle and the other pedestrians find it a difficult matter to retain their gum shoes from sticking fast in the mud while passing that way.

When the weather settles sufficiently for the Street Commissioner to work his men, that part of the city's thoroughfare ought to be attended to and put in a half way possible condition at least.

It is due the people residing in the street.

WINS THE HONOR

Ex-Mason Man Complimented By Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce

Mr. W. A. Bennett, mention of whose successful career was made in THE LEDGER a few days ago, was elected President of the Chamber of Commerce at Cincinnati Wednesday over J. M. Sears by a majority of 160 votes out of a total cast of 572.

He stands for a belt line, civic improvements and better railroad facilities.

Mr. Bennett was born at Dover January 8th, 1854.

He has been in the lumber business in Cincinnati and the South the last twenty-five years. His lumber firm handles approximately 40,000,000 feet of lumber annually, about one-third of it being exported throughout the world.

He has enormous holdings in timber lands and is immensely wealthy.

There has been discovered a spring on Mr. Ike Chanslor's farm near Millersburg, which, after being analyzed, proves to be equal to Swango Spring water. It is very near the lead mines now being developed.

HOUGHENS—BRATTON.

Amid the sweet scented odor of flowers and the beautiful strains of the Mendelssohn Wedding March, rendered by Mrs. H. E. Rosebery, Mr. J. H. Houghens Wednesday led to the altar Miss Plegia R. Bratton and there took the solemn vow that made them man and wife.

The Church at Sardis was beautifully decorated under the supervision of Rev. H. E. Rosebery, the color scheme being pink and white, dotted here and there with beautiful ferns.

The wedding took place at high noon and the Church was crowded to its utmost capacity. As the bride and groom marched up the aisle there came a silence over the congregation which plainly told that those present realized the solemnity of the occasion.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bird Hughes, and was one of the most brilliant society events that has occurred at Sardis for years.

The bride was attired in a handsomely tailored traveling costume of chiffon broad cloth, and the groom wore the conventional black.

The bride is one of Sardis's most cultured and refined young ladies. While the groom is a young man of rare ability and is highly esteemed by all who know him.

The ushers were Messrs. Herman Ray and John Suit both of Sardis.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal couple left in carriages to take the 3:20 train at Maysville, followed by a shower of rice and best wishes for their future happiness.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many beautiful and costly presents.

Their many friends extend to the happy couple their best wishes.

River News

Gage marks 35.7 and rising.

The Ohio now has water to waste.

From reports, the Lower Ohio must now be the higher Ohio.

The heavy fogs on the river are not as frequent as they have been.

The body of Charles Van Dyne, of East Liverpool, who was drowned Christmas Day by falling overboard from the towboat Henry Lourie near Williams' Island, has been recovered from the river near Waverly, W. Va.

Despite the popular impression of those whose attention has been taken from the river as a means of transportation of passengers and freight to railroads and their growing facilities river trade and interests have grown. Their advancement has been almost proportionate to the railroads.

There is a possibility that the Queen City of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati line, which suffered a broken shaft at St. Mary's on her last trip up the river and which was taken to the Pittsburgh docks, will be laid up for repairs for at least two or three weeks and possibly longer. The old shaft has been removed and it was discovered that the steel cylinder sills were badly bent and twisted.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75¢ per bottle. Sight of Eye Destroyed by Disease—

IN ONE WEEK ALL
SORES DISAPPEARED

"Our little girl, one year and a half old, was taken with eczema or that was what the doctor said it was. We called in the family doctor and he gave some tablets and said she would be all right in a few days. The eczema grew worse and we called in doctor No. 2. He said she was teething, as soon as the teeth were through she would be all right. But she still grew worse. Doctor No. 3 said it was eczema. By this time she was nothing but a yellow, greenish sore. Well, he said he could help her, so we let him try it about a week. One morning we discovered a little yellow pimple on one of her eyes. Of course we phoned for doctor No. 3. He came over and looked her over and said that he could not do anything more for her, that we had better take her to some eye specialist, since it was an ulcer. So we went to Oswego to doctor No. 4, and he said the eyesight was gone, but that he could help it. We thought we would try doctor No. 5. Well, that proved the same, only he charged $10 more than doctor No. 4. We were nearly discouraged. I saw one of the Cuticura advertisements in the paper and thought we would try the Cuticura Treatment, so I went and purchased a set of Cuticura Remedies, which cost me $1, and in three days our daughter, who had been sick about eight months, showed great improvement, and in one week all sores had disappeared. Of course it could not restore the eyesight, but if we had used Cuticura in time I am confident that it would have saved the eye. We think there is no remedy so good for any skin trouble or impurity of the blood as Cuticura. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Abbott, R. F. D. No. 9, Fulton, Oswego Co., N. Y., August 17, 1906."

Complete External and Internal Treatment for Every Humor of Infants, Children, and Adults consists of Cuticura Soap (25¢) to Cleanse the Skin, Cuticura Ointment (50¢) to Heal the Skin, and Cuticura Resolvent (50¢), (in the form of Chocolate Cakes, 25¢ per box) to Purify the Blood. Within a short time 1,000 coal hoppers will leave the shops of the American Car and Foundry Company at Huntington, for the C. and O., and, when present plans are realized, 5,000 cars will have been added to the rolling stock of this road.

MRS. HANNAH E. DICKSON.

Mrs. Hannah E. Dickson, brief mention of whose death was made in THE LEDGER yesterday was a member of one of the oldest and best families in the Germantown neighborhood.

She was in her 79th year, having been born August 23, 1828. Her death was due to kidney affection.

She spent her whole life in that community, living for more than half a century at the home where she died.

In her girlhood days she united with the Baptist Church, and has ever since lived a life consistent with her profession. As a Christian she took great interest in her Church and all religious affairs. As a mother, her home was her delight, and was always wrapped up, as it were, in the welfare of her children. As a neighbor and friend she was beloved and trusted by all, and was ever willing and anxious to lend a helping hand to the needy.

She leaves four sons and one daughter to mourn her loss, her husband having preceded her to the grave by several years.

The funeral will be held at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning at the Christian Church in Germantown, after which the remains will be laid to rest in the K. of P. Cemetery. Services by A. C. Huston of Louisville.

LIFE IN CITIES IS SLAVERY.

So Says an Emancipated Person Now Residing on a Farm.

How many city men will sympathize with the following view of life taken from a remarkable autobiographical serial, "Adventures in Contentment?" "I came here eight years ago as the renter of this farm, of which soon afterward I became the owner. The time before that I like to forget. The chief impression is left upon my memory, now happily growing indistinct, is of being hurried faster than I could well travel. From the moment as a boy of 17 I first began to pay my own way my days were ordered by an inscrutable power which drove me hourly to my tasks. I was rarely allowed to look up or down, but always forward, toward that vague success which we Americans love to glorify.

"My senses, my nerves, even my muscles were continually strained to the utmost of attainment. If I loitered or paused by the wayside, as it seems natural for me to do, I soon heard the sharp crack of the lash. For many years, and I can say it truthfully, I never rested. I neither thought nor reflected. I had no pleasure, even though I pursued it fiercely, during the brief respite of vacations. Through many feverish years I did not work; I merely produced.

"The only real thing I did was to hurry as if every moment were my last, as if the world, which now seems so rich in everything, held only one prize which might be seized upon before I arrived. Since then I have tried to recall like one who struggles to restore the visions of a fever what it was that I ran to attain or why I should have borne without rebellion such indignities to soul and body. That life seems now, of all illusions, the most distant and unreal. It is like that unguessed eternity before we are born—not of concern compared with that eternity upon which we are now embarked.

"All these things happened in cities and among crowds. I like to forget them. They smack of that slavery of the spirit which is so much worse than any mere slavery of the body."

British Admiral at Port Arthur.

Rear-Admiral Sir Edward Chichester of the British navy, who died recently, used to tell this bit of history of the far east, just before Russia took possession of Port Arthur: "I ran into Port Arthur one morning and anchored alongside a Russian cruiser. Well, there was the devil to do. The port admiral put off and told me I could not anchor there. I said I was already anchored. He said I must weigh again and get out. I told him I wouldn't budge an inch until it suited me, and, in the meantime, I must have fresh provisions and vegetables. Then there was no end of excitement. Russian pinnaces and Chinese pinnaces darting all over the harbor. I went quietly about my business. The Chinese said they would complain to my government. I grinned. This went on for some time, and then I got orders from home—Salisbury was getting old then, and probably a little weak—to leave Port Arthur and sail for Chefoo. When I reached Chefoo the Russians had taken possession of Port Arthur. Had I remained, the history of the far east would have been charged for all time."

ONE KEY FOR ALL TRUNKS.

London Merchant Has Conferred Real Boon on Humanity.

Was there ever a woman born who did not at some time in her career lose or forget her trunk key? Who has not experienced the wild sense of despair that sweeps over the travel-worn, dusty creature who arrives at her journey's end with no more scientific implement than a hairpin to probe the mysteries of her trunk lock? And when her pieces of baggage number more than one, and all the keys are left behind, so much the greater is the mourning over the disaster!

Now comes along a London trunk dealer who for ingenuity and true business instinct puts all his Yankee brethren to the blush. He has invented a series of trunks, skirt trunk, bodice trunk, hatbox and every other sort of trunk or box that you may need, all of which can be unlocked with one key.

Of course, you may forget the one—but it is less of a memory tax than half a dozen, and, should it be forgotten, you will squander less of your substance upon the village locksmith than if you were obliged to order a whole bunch.

BOOQS.

Mrs. James Lock of Cincinnati visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tully are here from Kansas City. They talk of locating in Kentucky.

While returning from a party Saturday night, Frank Davenport shot John Reeder, the ball grazing the abdomen. Davenport claims he did it accidentally.

We understand that Lewis county Bus drivers have been notified not to bring whisky into the county. Good—but why is it that the Cottageville barroom is allowed to do business and do it without county or government license.

We understand that F. P. Tully is shortly to leave us to again engage in business in Manchester. He is one of our best and most progressive citizens, and we trust that his heart and his interest may continue to abide with his old home community. Our loss is Manchester's gain.

There was one addition to Ebenezer Presbyterian Church last Sunday, the roll was called, communion observed, and the following officers were elected and ordained: Elder, John T. Dodd; Deacons, J. C. Boyd, F. P. Tully, A. A. Jenkins and Robert King. Regular preaching at the evening service. There was an increased attendance and interest in the Sabbath-school, a midweek prayer-meeting is to be started next Thursday evening, and the new year opens with activity and improvement all along the line. The Ladies' Aid Society of the Church deserves special commendation for their zeal and good work.

Trouble is feared at Jackson if the trial of former Judge James Hargis is taken up at this time, as both factions are heavily armed and in town in force. The trial Judge will investigate the prospects for trouble and may ask the Governor to send troops to protect the Court and the witnesses. The regular Sheriff was removed on motion of the defense, and efforts were made to select an elisor, but all those suggested have been refused.

The ladies of the Christian Church at Harrodsburg will tender to their Pastor, the Rev. Dr. M. G. Buckner, an elaborate banquet tonight. The banquet is given to Dr. Buckner in appreciation of his earnest and effective work, not only in his own Church, but in the community as a whole. He led the local option fight in Harrodsburg, which resulted in the saloons being voted out of the town by a majority of 301 votes. Dr. Buckner was formerly Pastor of the Christian Church at Washington and has hosts of friends in this county.

The Dover News says: Mrs. Mayme Hickman and little daughter, Annie Humphreys, arrived Thursday from Welsh, W. Va., and are with the family of the former's father, Mr. Frank Perrie. The little girl was brought home on account of illness and has improved rapidly since arriving here. Cold weather has no terrors for Mrs. Hickman and her sister, Miss Port Perrie, who are residing at Welsh, as coal from a mine in the rear of their yard falls on their premises and the owners are glad for them to use it to get it out of the way, and consequently their fuel costs them nothing.

Born, Sunday, to Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Maxey of Clark street, Clifton, a fine son.
